News and views from life in the bus lane

EDITION NO. 84 MAY 2017

Message from Chris and Dave

Transport Minister Constance's decision to privatise hundreds of bus services and place the future of 1,200 bus drivers and depot staff in limbo is devastating and a complete betrayal of workers.

He didn't consult the union, he didn't consult the people of Sydney and he certainly didn't consult you. Minister Constance needs to understand that you cannot treat public transport workers and the community with such contempt.

If Minister Constance thinks he can sue his way towards privatising Sydney's buses he's got another think coming.

We're in this for the long haul and we will fight this attack with everything we've got. We'll be keeping members updated so make sure you keep checking the website for all the latest. In the meantime, join the campaign at ourtransport.org.au.

Thanks again for all your support.

Transport Minister Shoots From the Hip - Again

Transport Minister Andrew Constance's decision to escalate the dispute over privatisation of buses to the Supreme Court shows he has no ability to manage his portfolio.

RTBU Bus Division Secretary Chris Preston told the media:

"This is a Minister that shoots from the hip, he rules through lawyer and media release - rather than talking to the community and his workforce.

Bus drivers, with the support of the Inner West community are simply standing up against Minister Constance's plans to privatise Sydney's public transport system, a plan he has no mandate and no public support for.

It's an absolute disgrace that they're now being dragged into the Supreme Court by the Minister's expensive lawyers in an effort to silence their voices. We are willing to talk to sit down and talk to the Government, but all we've received are surprise attacks, media statements and threatening legal letters.

The Supreme Court action will do nothing to resolve these issues. That's why we again call on the Premier to intervene and bring her Minister into line."
